

Regulatory Excellence

We are obligated to follow federal, state and local laws that govern our business. We are all responsible for learning and staying current in order to perform our job responsibilities.

Includes

- Committing to honest and ethical billing and communications
- Avoiding any kickbacks for referrals
- Respecting copyright laws
- Operating with standards of financial practices and controls
- Dealing fairly with all who we come in contact with
- Integrity and accuracy of all documentation
- Voluntarily disclosing when we find we are out of compliance
- Cooperating with government investigations.

Disciplinary Action will be taken against any Employee/Associate who fails to act in accordance with the Code of Conduct, the compliance program, supporting policies and procedures and applicable federal and state laws.

Our success depends on your commitment to act with integrity, both personally and as part of our organization.

A Personal Obligation:

You have a duty to report any problems you observe or perceive, regardless of your role.

Three Step Reporting Process

First, talk to your supervisor. He or she is most familiar with laws, regulations and policies that relate to your work.

Second, if you are unable to talk to your supervisor, seek out another member of the management team or Human Resources.

Third, if you still have a concern, contact the Compliance Liaison or a member of the organization's Compliance Committee.

If none of these resolve your issue you may call the

COMPLIANCE LINE:

Code of Conduct for Friends Care Community

Friends Health Care Association dba Friends Care Community is a Continuing Care Retirement Community.

Our compliance program covers the compliance issues, laws, regulations and guidelines that are relevant to a provider of senior services including residential, assisted living/personal care and skilled nursing services.

Our Code of Conduct is a shared responsibility that applies to every person at every level of our organization. This includes employees, board of directors, volunteers, independent contractors, subcontractors and vendors who may provide or are involved with healthcare or billing.

As you read this summary of our Code of Conduct, the word Employee/Associate will be used. This term includes all employees, vendors, contractors, volunteers and directors and officers providing care and services here at Friends Care Community.

Our Code of Conduct is supported and guided by policies and procedures. Any questions regarding our Code of Conduct or our policies and procedures can be directed to your immediate supervisor, the compliance liaison or any member of the Compliance Committee or the Compliance Officer.

For a copy of the entire Code of Conduct, please contact your Compliance Liaison:
