Regulatory Excellence
We are obligated to follow federal, state and local laws that govern our business. We are all responsible for learning and staying current in order to perform our job responsibilities.

Includes

- Committing to honest and ethical billing and communications
- Avoiding any kickbacks for referrals
- Respecting copyright laws
- Operating with standards of financial practices and controls
- Dealing fairly with all who we come in contact with
- Integrity and accuracy of all documentation
- Voluntarily disclosing when we find we are out of compliance
- Cooperating with government investigations.

A Personal Obligation:
You have a duty to report any problems you observe or perceive, regardless of your role.

Three Step Reporting Process
First, talk to your supervisor. He or she is most familiar with laws, regulations and policies that relate to your work.
Second, if you are unable to talk to your supervisor, seek out another member of the management team or Human Resources.
Third, if you still have a concern, contact the Compliance Liaison or a member of the organization’s Compliance Committee.

If none of these resolve your issue you may call the
COMPLIANCE LINE:
800-211-2713
Your calls are confidential and you may call ANONYMOUSLY if you choose.

Disciplinary Action will be taken against any Employee/Associate who fails to act in accordance with the Code of Conduct, the compliance program, supporting policies and procedures and applicable federal and state laws.

Our success depends on your commitment to act with integrity, both personally and as part of our organization.
